Ultima Courchevel is the biggest launch of luxury private chalets in the French Alps, designed as top-of-the-range homes away from home, with all the Ultima signature services. With its unique location between 1850 and 1650, Ultima Courchevel's exceptional positioning on the edge of la rosière forest offers guests the opportunity to discover an unspoilt natural paradise in the heart of the three valleys.

Comprising two standalone ski-in and ski-out resorts with thirteen private chalets and world-class wellness amenities, it provides direct access to the sunniest of slopes Courchevel, as well as breath-taking views of the mountains from every chalet.

Providing two world-class spas, an impressive lobby, treatment rooms, a lavish restaurant and ski rooms with direct exclusive access to the slopes, guests can revel in the utmost privacy, away from the crowds.

Occupying a pristine slope-side position at the heart of the world's finest ski region on the heights of the Tarentaise Valley, Ultima Courchevel offers all the signature luxury services of a five-star resort within the confines of fully serviced private chalets on demand.

Ultima Courchevel is spread over 3,700 square metres providing spectacular views of the valley and the Dent du Villard summit (2,284 metres), all offering an ultra-indulgent luxury experience. Each chalet is home to four or five bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms, sleeping eight to ten adults, ideal for families or groups of friends looking for the privacy and space to relish an ideal post-lockdown escape.

Designed as a tranquil retreat in a buzzing destination, guests can enjoy the most spectacular views of the verdant alpine landscapes covered in immaculate white snow. With access to two ski rooms leading directly to the Belvédère slopes and a boutique ski store onsite that provides in-house ski fittings, Ultima Courchevel brings the world's largest skiing playground to your front door.
